	Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel Friday - 7 April 1978
25X1	5. LIAISON Received a telephone call from Don Sanders, staff of the Senate Select Committee on Ethics, concerning the draft Memorandum of Understanding for the Morgan-Schmitt Subcommittee which we had sent him on 4 April. (See Memorandum for 7 April.)
25X1	TIAISON Mike O'Neil, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence staff, called asking that we obtain and forward to Representative Bob Wilson (R., Calif.) an English translation of Arbatov's (the head of the USA Institute in Moscow) rebuttal of President
25X1	Carter's Salem (Massachusetts) speech. I passed the requirement on to and told Mike that I was hopeful that the article would get to him prior to the close of business.
25X1	8. CONSTITUENT Bob Goodlatte, in the Roanoke office of Representative Caldwell Butler (R., Va.), called
25X1	with a request for any information that we might have on
25X1
25X1	9. LIAISON Mike Flannigan, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence staff, called requesting that we make available for his review the Pike Committee box entitled "State Department" and three of the seven "DOD" boxes. He will review the remaining four "DOD" boxes at a later date. I told him that I would get back to him on this.
25X1	LIAISON Rose Guyer, Legislative Assistant, in the office of Representative Thomas Kindness (R., Ohio), called asking which committees of Congress exercise oversight over the Agency. I gave her a quick explanation of the respective roles of the oversight committees.
